Pastoral:

CALVARY RECTORY, Whitsuntide, 1868.

MY BELOVED PARISHIONERS:

This little Pastoral will, I trust, revive profitable memories of the past, and present new inducements to activity and zeal in the old Parish work. If you have preserved the letters hitherto issued by your Rectors, I beg you to read them again. Nothing could be said more appropriately for our present needs and purpose. You may there find the very instruction which I would urge for your guidance in the opportunities of worship, of offerings and of personal service for the advancement of the old work of the Parish. Let us unite heart, hand and voice, and all do cheerfully whatsoever the Lord has given us ability to do, and His blessing will not be withholden from our beloved Church.

When you cannot be present at the appointed public services, will you not pray for us? Let the last prayer in the Prayer-Book be used daily by every parishioner. Daily Common Prayer is practicable for us all only in this way.

Let every one devote some fixed portion of time during every week to teaching, or to district visiting, or to mite-collections, or to the earning of money for the Parish, and to the furtherance of its interests according to your Pastor's direction. By the Sunday classes and choir, by the night and sewing schools, in the use of the Parish library and evening meetings for entertainment, profitable readings and social work, you may revive the spirit, if not the old forms, of the "Parish Association," and, all find ample scope for your different individual qualifications or choice of work.

> "Altho' what each can do is small,
> Much may be done by aid of all."

Your offerings are needed for the service of the sanctuary, for the poor and distressed brethren of our household of faith, for the outcast, the heathen and degraded, for Church Repairs, Rectory Fund, Sunday and Sewing schools, Night schools, Libraries and Parish work; and you are invited to give and to collect money as you have the ability.

By the faithful use of these means we may reasonably hope to strengthen Calvary Parish, to increase the number of worshippers and to do them good; to advance "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men." Angels would rejoice at our opportunities; let us not despise them.

Praying that God may, by the abundant outpourings of His Holy Spirit, enable you to follow Jesus Christ your Saviour, in all the ways of a holy life, and to show forth the praises of Him who hath called you to be His servants in His church on earth, and that you may continue His and daily increase in His Spirit more and more until you come unto His everlasting Kingdom,"

I am, affectionately,

Your Pastor,

FRANCIS J. CLERC.

P. S.—Since the above was prepared I have suddenly and unexpectedly been made to feel that I ought to accept the call which summons me to another cure. The memory of nearly two pleasant years of service among you makes the thought of separation painful. I trust it may give force to what has thus become my parting counsel and exhortation. I ask for my successor your prompt and hearty co-operation, and that you will inform him of any omissions or errors that have escaped detection in the list of your names and residences. "While we are absent one from the other, may the Lord watch over us all," for our everlasting good. Mizpeh.

Affectionately as ever,

Your friend and servant in the Church,

F. J. C.
